

2019 UNIBO TTIPills Series

University of Bologna

in cooperation with UNIBO PhD Programme in European Law and LM Course – European Constitutional Law

“The constitutional dimension of the EU external action: recent trends and future perspectives”

Coordinator: Prof. Federico Casolari a.y. 2018/19

The next series of UNIBO’s TTPills will consist of lectures on the constitutional dimension of the EU external action in order to increase public awareness on the major trends and future perspectives in this field.

More to the point, they will be focused on the following topics:

1. The role of the European Union within the international context;
2. The principle of autonomy of EU law in external relations;
3. The implications of Brexit on the external relations of the EU;
4. The integration of the EU’s Common Foreign and Security Policy into the Community method;
5. The conclusion of association agreements with third countries under Article 217 TFEU.

Lectures will be given by leading scholars with strong expertise on the LAWTTIP Network topics.
